DISCLOSURES MAY BE STARTLING

Rumors are current that evidence is being gathered against two so-called prominent politicians of Martinez on charges of extortion and attempted extortion. Their reported activities are arousing a great deal of interest. The ugly bottom of the matter may be exposed when the grand jury makes its report.

TOWNSEND DENIES HIS PERSECUTION

Hats off to Dr. Townsend! Three cheers and numerous huzzas for the doughty little warrior, who has put to rout horse, foot and dragon the iniquitous Congressional committee.

And that is not all. Besides defying the lightning bolts of the probers and thumbing his nose at them, he has advised all those subpoenaed to testify not to appear.

I really did not think this modern David had the intestinal fortitude to go up against the Goliath of a committee, which has might, but not right on its side, and tell it to take a run and jump at itself.

For the most unfair, vicious and unprincipled proceeding ever perpetrated in this country I want to award the unenviable crown to this committee in its misnamed "investigation" of the Townsend movement.

No unbiased person can but come to the conclusion that the committee has only one purpose in view—to discredit Dr. Townsend, destroy the confidence of his followers in the pension movement and thus make safe the election of certain Democrats.

Some few million of us people out in the hinterland do not give a tinker's whoop how much money Dr. Townsend has garnered from his disciples. He says that about $60,000 has come to himself personally in the past two years and (Continued on Page 8)

Water Services For Dead Will Be Held Today

Richmond war veterans and auxiliaries today will pay homage to the memories of the sailor dead at services to be held at one o'clock on board a Richmond-San Rafael ferry boat.

The services are under the auspices of the Honor Auxiliary Veterans of Foreign Wars with Mrs. Anna Zurligen as chairman of the committee.

Assemblyman T. H. DeLap of Richmond, will be the speaker during the rites.

During the services, at which time Mayor W. W. Scott and others will speak, a naval airplane will circle about the boat and drop flowers into the bay.

Music will be furnished by the High School band, directed by George Morris.

The public has been invited to attend and participate in the exercises.

Long Is Back From Convention

James N. Long of this city, supervisor of the first district, returned yesterday from attendance on the State supervisory convention in Eureka. The main problem before the body was the relief problem, which the State wants the counties to handle. It was agreed that the counties would take over administration of relief, provided the State and Federal governments guaranteed the funds.

Supervisor Long said last night that he had enjoyed the stay in Eureka very much as he had the opportunity to renew many old-time friendships there, men with whom he played semi-pro baseball in the days ago.

Eureka was also the scene of the brief journalistic career of the supervisor, he being employed for a very limited time as a cub reporter on the Humboldt Times.

City Garbage

The present city garbage contract is about to expire.

In a short time it will be before the Council for consideration and disposal.

Garbage disposal is one of the most vital matters in the city.

It is a public health measure.

Every resident in Richmond is affected by the manner in which the refuse of the city is handled.

And in this connection, no matter what the Council may finally determine to do, the new contract should be surrounded with every safeguard possible.

If the matter is to go to public bids, specifications should be such that phoney and irresponsible firms will be barred.

Every bidder should be compelled to put up a certified check or cash in a substantial amount, that will insure, if an award is made, that the firm will enter into the contract.

When the contract is entered into, a surety bond or cash should be put up to guarantee that the provisions of the agreement will be faithfully carried out for the term specified.

Another provision that should enter into the specifications or contract, would be that at no time during its life, would an increase in rates be permitted.

The above are suggestions that we believe, if adopted in some form or other by the Council, would mean that after the awarding of the contract, there would be no loophole whereby any firm could welch on its agreement.

Congress Balked By Townsend Defiance

WASHINGTON, May 23.—UP—How to find a method to punish Dr. Francis E. Townsend for defying the House old age pensions inquiry without making a martyr of him stumped the Townsend investigating committee tonight.

Members agreed the gaunt, elderly physician should pay some penalty for marching out of the hearing room and daring the committee to arrest him for his defiance.

NO AGREEMENT
There was no agreement, however, on what action should be taken.

If Townsend is cited for contempt committee members are uncertain whether it would be best to try him on the charges in the House or turn the case over to District of Columbia Supreme Court. Drawbacks appeared to either course.

INTERFERE WITH PLANS
Townsend supporters have said a House trial would "stack the cards" against their leader and committee members want to avoid anything which would make him appear a martyr.

Congressional leaders pointed out that a lengthy contempt trial of Dr. Townsend and his five associates who threatened to follow his example would seriously interfere with present adjournment plans.

COURT ACTION SEEN
Speaker Joseph W. Byrns favors the court action so as to not interfere with adjournment. Should the five aides refuse to testify, there would be a "mass" contempt action in which all of the House's 423 members would be able to ask questions freely if the house attempts to try its own case. This would take several weeks, leaders fear.

Originally, one committee member said, all members of the eight man committee, except Rep. John B. Hollister, R., Ohio, favored bringing the action in the House against Dr. Townsend.

LAW MAKERS TO ASSEMBLE ON MONDAY

SACRAMENTO, May 23.—UP—Facing the alternative of providing money for direct relief between now and July 1 or risking serious trouble among the unemployed, particularly in Los Angeles district, California's legislators will be assembled here Monday for a special session called by Gov. Frank F. Merriam.

The major purpose of the meeting will be to finance the dole until July 1, when the $24,000,000 appropriated for the next fiscal year becomes available.

FUNDS EXHAUSTED
Funds advanced for relief this year have been exhausted and unless the legislature acts swiftly there will be no money to sustain 45,000 relief cases during June.

Merriam will recommend that the legislature make possible the immediate expenditure of $2,500,000 of the $24,000,000 available for use July 1. This would involve no new appropriation but merely the technicality of an enabling act. It would solve immediate relief problems and the remaining $21,500,000 would last at least until the next regular session of the legislature in January, provided WPA and other federal work relief programs are continued.

LIMIT LEGISLATION
Legislation will be limited to relief and ten technical bills which are said to be controversial. The governor repulsed efforts to include the general subject of taxation and other proposals which (Continued on page 8)

200 Richmond Scouts Attend Crockett Camp

More than 200 Richmond Boy Scouts are estimated to be in attendance at the big camporee now being held in Crockett by Scouts of Berkeley and Contra Costa County. More than 1000 scouts are attending the affair which is being held at Recreation Park.

The Scouts arrived yesterday morning, pitched their tents and prepared for the two-day stay.

In the afternoon various contests were held to select patrol eligible for the Sacramento camporal in October.

In the evening a huge bonfire was lighted and the Scouts gathered around to participate in a program of songs and stunts.

This morning after breakfast there will be church services and a recreation period. After lunch Scouts will prepare to break camp. A large number of local residents will go to Crockett this morning to visit the camp.

Palestine Paralyzed By Rioting

JERUSALEM, May 23.—UP—Renewed Arab-Jewish clashes today paralyzed business thruout Palestine and forced British authorities to drastic military measures to capture control of the situation.

Official figures showed that in one month of rioting resulting from Arab protests against further Jewish immigration 26 Jews, eight Arabs and one Arab policeman have been killed.

MANY WOUNDED
Three British policemen, 42 Jews and 28 Arabs were wounded seriously.

Except for agents writing insurance policies against damage from rioting most business throughout Palestine is at a standstill with Arab-Jewish tension mounting.

TROOPS ARE SENT
One detachment of British military reinforcements arrived from Egypt. Another is on the way.

Active members of the Arab strike committee which has been directing a general strike for two weeks, received emergency orders not to leave the towns in which they have resided until further notice.

TRAINS GUARDED
Night train service throughout the country was cancelled.

Day trains run only under heavy guard. Schedules have been reduced.

Military escorts today were ordered to protect motor convoys operating between the larger towns. Road traffic was limited to highways under control of the military.

Telephone service, erratic at best, was suspended.

Black Legion Reported As Nation-Wide Organization

DETROIT, May 23.—UP—The Black Legion, whose robed and hooded night riders terrorized scores of victims in Detroit area, is but one segment of a national group whose vigilante activities extend to every major city, authorities learned tonight.

As official investigation delved deeper into the cold blooded shooting of a victim of Black Legion vengeance, Prosecutor Duncan C. McCrea was told that the vigilante band "included persons of high and low degree in every state of the union."

16 ARRESTED
McCrea's information was gathered from statements by 16 members of the secret organization, now held without charge in the county jail here.

McCrea said murder warrants against at least nine of those held would be issued Monday.

SEVEN ON PARITY
They will be charged with the wilful slaying of Charles Poole, 32, who was lured from a beer garden to his death near a roadside ditch.

At least seven were in the party that took Poole to the rendezvous and at least four pumped bullets into his living body, McCrea revealed. A compromise charge may be brought against the others, that (Continued on page 8)

Central Valley Plan 'Betrayed' By Washington

VISALIA, Cal., May 23.—UP—James H. Burke, member of the California Water Commission and president of the Tulare county water commission, today charged the Administration had "deserted the state" by failing to support the Central Valley water project.

"The national Democratic administration," Burke said, "after promising to support the Central Valley water project, has deserted the state in its hour of need by withholding Congressional action and refusing appropriation of bonds for its continued development."

Burke was en route to San Francisco tonight to confer with other members of the commission.

Is Still A Still When Dismantled?

Attorney Thomas M. Carlson of Richmond, counsel for three men arrested recently at The Palms, near San Pablo, will contend upon appearance of his clients before Justice of the Peace J. E. Christensen Thursday that under state law a still is not a still when it is dismantled.

The three men, Nello Monticello, 40, Vince F. Barise, 33, and Sam Buffa, 48, all of San Francisco were arrested by State Board of Equalization agents when the found a dismantled still at the premises owned by S. Cozza.

The hearing was scheduled last Thursday but was continued for a week.

The defense contention will be fought by Deputy District Attorney Homer Patterson.

TWO KILLED IN RAIDS ON ARMS CACHE

VIENNA, May 23.—UP—Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg tonight ordered the arrest of Nazi leaders throughout the country after a pitched battle at Prince Ernst R. Von Starhemberg's Wachsenberg castle.

Two were killed and several injured when Nazis attacked the castle in an effort to seize arms believed stored there for the Heimwehr, Starhemberg's private army.

ROUNDUP ORDERED
With a nationwide roundup of Nazi leaders ordered, Starhemberg, ousted from the government a week ago by Schuschnigg, self-proclaimed dictator of Austria, rushed back to Vienna by airplane from his country estate.

Tonight 25 prominent Nazi leaders were under arrest and the police were continuing their search for others. Eight alleged Nazis seized during the fight at the castle were held for questioning and trial.

TWO ARE KILLED
Johann Pfoser, a peasant, and Johann Weniger, coachman, both 22, were killed in the battle.

Wachsenberg Castle, located in upper Austria, is owned by Starhemberg. He has never resided there but his family has used it as a summer residence.

Fighting occurred when 50 armed men, described as Nazis by government officials, roared through the castle grounds (Continued on page 8)

Bonus Bonds To Be Sent Out On June 15 Is Plan

WASHINGTON, May 23.—UP—Postmaster General James A. Farley tonight announced detailed plans for payment of the soldier's bonus and designated 241 postoffices throughout the country as paying offices.

Bonus bonds will be sent out on June 15 from Washington and the postoffices are the eleven federal district centers. All will be sent as registered mail and Farley said he had instructed carriers to "go out of their way" to assist in their delivery. Identification will be required of all veterans.

If he wants to cash his bonus bonds, the veteran must get them certified at his local postoffice. If the postmaster or designated employee know him, no witnesses are necessary; otherwise he has to have two witnesses who are known to the postal worker and who will identify him.

15 TO 1 SHOT IS WINNER IN BELMONT RACE

NEW YORK, May 23.—UP—White Cockade, a 15-1 shot who had never won a race as a 3-year-old, triumphed in the 61st running of the historic Withers Stakes before a crowd of 25,000 at Belmont Park today, whipping the heavily-backed favorite, Brevity, by two lengths.

White Cockade's stable mate, Teufel, winner of the Wood Memorial finished third, four lengths behind Brevity.

The time for the mile race run over a fast track was one minute, 57 1/5 seconds.

The race produced another aftermath controversy such as characterized Brevity's defeat in the Kentucky Derby. After it was over, Jockey Wayne Wright, who rode Brevity, told Joseph E. Widener, his owner, that Mr. Jones ran into his mount shortly after the start. There was no claim of foul, however.

Red Rahn, C. W. Whitney's sensational spender, expected to give Brevity his most dangerous competition today, finished a disappointing seventh. At no time was Red Rahn a contender. He came up from last place to fifth at the stretch, but was too far back at this point and when he tried to go to the outside was blocked off.

Play Of Hitler Love Life Is Put Under Ban

PARIS, May 23.—UP—The French Ministry of Interior today banned "Hitler," a play dramatizing the Nazi leader's alleged love life, after a series of conferences and a special dress rehearsal for policemen only.

The play, which was to have been produced at the Belleville Theater in the workers' section, was given for police benefit last night, when Premier Albert Laroche learned of plans for its presentation.

"Hitler" portrays the German Fuehrer as the player of his sweet heart and is a dramatized version of an article printed in the Journal some months ago. The German Embassy protested the article and police in Paris at once suppressed it.

FOLSOM, Calif., May 23.—UP—Mark E. Noon today was reappointed clerk of the State Prison Board. The reappointment was announced by board members after their regular meeting here. Noon, one of the best known penologists in the state, has been clerk for more than 20 years.

His present term was about due to run out.

Former Senator Under Indictment

PHILADELPHIA, May 23.—UP—Police revealed today that former U. S. Senator Ralph H. Cameron of Arizona is under indictment here on charges of fraudulent conversion and obtaining money under false pretenses. Police in Washington and New York have been asked to locate Cameron.

He is alleged to have departed with a set of plans for a $100,000 development valued at $500,000.

5 TEAMS ARE ENTERED FOR U. C. BIG MEET

BERKELEY, May 23.—UP—Five teams tonight had entered the maximum number of men in the Pacific Coast Conference intercollegiate track meet, Memorial Day, the West's answer to the National I. C. A. A. meet in Philadelphia, which has been "snubbed" by California teams.

The maximum 15-man teams have been entered by California, Stanford, Southern California, Washington, and Washington State. Other Pacific Coast entries are: Idaho, five; UCLA, seven; Montana, six; Oregon, eight, and Oregon State, 10.

The meet at Edwards stadium also will be something of an Olympic preview. It has been given definite status as a tryout meet by the Olympic selection committee and Pacific Coast tracksters who are hoped to nab places on the United States team will compete.

Closest battles are expected to come in the track events. The Trojans of Southern California, with one of the greatest all-around teams in the history of the institution, noted for its strong track aggregations, is expected to take the track title.

Let of entries in the field and weight events forecasts close and record-breaking competition.

In the dogpound current hand-cupings, Poy Draper, diminutive Trojan flyer, has Carson "Bud" Stigumaker of Oregon to beat as well as Ray Dean of Stanford, West Coast relay winner.

The broad jump has Loris "Bill" Benke of Washington State as its champion entry while the pole vault will see champions Bill Settle and Berle Meadows in action, well as Martin Janak of Oregon, Les Darr of Washington State and Ray Stair of Montana.

Senate Laboring On Tax Measure

WASHINGTON, May 23.—UP—Senate tax leaders "labored" this week-end to complete the Administration's new revenue measure by boosting the total yield to $1,137,000,000 and by cutting into present tax exemptions benefiting wealthy individuals.

The Senate finance committee checked up on the almost completed bill today and found it was some $80,000,000 short of the $600,000,000 additional corporate taxes asked by the President and that it had provided only the $100,000,000 windfall tax toward the $517,000,000 temporary revenue he requested over a three-year period.

Work Started On New Super Plane

LOS ANGELES, May 23.—UP—Work was under way at the Douglas plant today upon a revolutionary 40-passenger sky giant, twice as big as the China Clipper, upon which five air lines are gambling $480,000.

The huge plane is scheduled to be ready to take the air by January 1, 1937. It will weigh 50 tons compared to the ocean-going Clipper's 26. Staterooms will be larger than those of Pullman cars.

The ship will be able to cruise 225 miles an hour with only 60 percent of its power.

HAYNES GIVEN ODDS TO WIN OVER PRIMO

NEW YORK, May 23.—UP—Le Roy "Howitzer" Haynes, the hard-hitting Philadelphia Negro, who is being groomed as a "black menace" for Champion James J. Braddock or shufflin' Joe Louis, tangles with Primo Carnera in a return 10-round bout at Ebbets Field Wednesday night.

It is an important fight, although its significance does not smack one on the whiskers at first glance. If satchelfoot Primo should turn the tables on Haynes in the Brooklyn ring, the man mountain's victory would remove a very annoying individual from Joe Louis' otherwise unclouded horizon. It also might lessen considerably Braddock's chances for a lucrative title defense in September.

However, Haynes is a heavy favorite to beat Da Preem. They are betting 2-1 on the "howitzer," and most boxing writers expect him to fell Primo in sections before the third round. Le Roy stopped Carnera in the third round at Philadelphia March 16. Carnera insisted after the bout that he had been led to believe Haynes was a "soft touch" and that he had not trained properly for the bout.

"Thes time I turn da table over on him," Primo promised tonight at his Summit, N. J., training camp. Unfortunately for the Ambling Alp, however, it seems that he might train 24 hours a day for six months and still be made to order for Haynes, because Le Roy, who has one of the most deadly right fists in the business is a very murdering young man against a slow target. And Primo certainly is slow.

If Le Roy topples the vast Venetian, he will be matched with Maxie Baer or Phil Brubaker at Ebbets Field in mid-July, according to Promoter Andy Niederreiter. Now that ex-champion Haynes has settled his litigation with former manager Lorimer on the coast, Niederreiter believes Baer will be ready for a "big-money" comeback against Haynes.

Shannon Asked By S. F. Assessor To Return Taxes

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—UP—Three police captains, three lieutenants and three special duty men will face a triple barreled attack from their inquisitors Monday when investigations into conditions of alleged police graft, underworld pay-offs and bribes, are continued by Federal, State, county and city officials.

The attack opened on a new front tonight when Harold Boyd, chief deputy assessor for San Francisco, said he filed formal notice on Sergeant Patrick Shannon, demanding personal property taxes and penalties on the $25,000 Shannon previously said he kept hidden in a woodpile. The Federal government is viewing this and other police fortunes to find out about possible evasion of income taxes.

Second line of attack against the nine former officers will be directed by Theodore Roche, head of the police commission who said they would be required to appear on charges of unofficerlike conduct. The third line of fire against the officers is under the command of presiding Superior Judge Elmer E. Robinson. It was reported Robinson was planning to send the reluctant tongued ex-police men to jail on contempt charges.

Girl Ends Her Brief Marriage To Young Ince

LOS ANGELES, May 23.—UP—Charlotte Buford, 18, bride of a few days, today sought annulment of her marriage to Richard K. Ince, 20, son of the late Thomas H. Ince, motion picture producer on charges he had misrepresented his age and ability to support her.

In her complaint on file in Superior Court, Miss Buford said the youth told her he would provide a home for her, but she later learned he was dependent upon his mother for support.

The couple eloped to Yuma, Ariz., last Wednesday and were married by Justice E. A. Freeman. Young Ince was reported to have given his age as 22 when applying for the marriage license.

Lone Wolf Of Prison Break Is Recaptured

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 23.—UP—A. C. McArthur, the "lone wolf" of the gang of Oklahoma convicts who broke out of McAllister State prison ten days ago, was arrested here tonight.

Only Julius Bohannon, McCurtain county killer, now remains at large, of 23 men who tried to escape. Oklahoma and Texas officers were looking for him near Texarkana.

McArthur was serving a 225 year sentence on a robbery conviction and had been in prison since 1921.

Ann Harding In New Legal Row With Ex-Husband

HOLLYWOOD, May 23.—UP—Ann Harding, in a new tilt with her former husband over their child, tonight charged Harry Bannister "appears to be attempting to carry out his continued threats to publicly scandalize me."

The ash-blond actress snapped back at Bannister's criticism, from New York, of her plans to take seven-year-old Jane Bannister to England, six months while she makes a picture. Miss Harding was awarded Jane's full custody after a series of court battles.

In a signed statement to the press, the first she had issued in her several years court battling with Bannister, Miss Harding reviewed the case and revealed she had given Bannister $100,000 in cash in the property settlement that ended their marriage and gave her custody of Jane.

Certainly.

Larger Naval Force Assured By New Plans

WASHINGTON, May 23.—UP—Enlargement of the U. S. Navy by 12 destroyers, six submarines and probably two battleships in addition to the present building program was made possible today when House and Senate conferees agreed on the $526,000,000 naval appropriation bill.

To become law, the conference report must be agreed to by the House and Senate and signed by the president, which is considered certain.

Death Ray

HERE IS the machine fiction writers have long dreamed of, that kills by death ray. Two backers brought suit in San Francisco against Henry Fleur, asserting the machine was a fake. But Fleur, shown at right at the control panel, took it into court and killed a snake with it in 8 1-2 minutes, a lizard in 6 and some termites in 30 seconds. The suit was dismissed.

MORTGAGE BURNED AT CHURCH CEREMONY

There is really nothing that looks so nice burning as a mortgage. The pastor and members of the congregation of the El Cerrito Community Methodist Episcopal Church can testify to the truth of this statement, for only Friday evening they saw a perfectly fine $10,000 mortgage go up in smoke, signifying the payment of the last dollar of indebtedness against their plant on Stockton avenue.

The ceremony was witnessed by a large audience including many former pastors of the El Cerrito flock. Several of these ministers of an earlier day gave interesting talks on the early history of the church and their experiences here when in the long ago the church stood upon a different location, all surrounded by deep mud and water, and called Rust Chapel.

Mention was made of several early day members, one of the most active of which was placed in contact with the El Cerrito group, where he was much needed, by Dr. H. E. Milnes.

The program of Friday evening's ceremony follows:

Hymn "I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord" Piano solo.....Marcelle Clements Sextette "Just the Same as Ever" Thelma Walsh, Pearl Anderson, Vera Bergman, Miriam Walsh, Bonita Burpee, Hope Rickman, Mrs. A. G. Thompson, director and accompanist.

Prayer.....Dr. C. L. Bent Piano solo.....Jessie Winningham

Brief history of the church.

Sextette....."The Lord Is Good" Talk "Team-work".....Rev. Stuart Hymn, "The Church's One Foundation"

Talk.....Percy F. Morris Responsive reading.....

"We Burn This Mortgage" Burning of Mortgage.....P. F. Morris Doxology.....

Benediction.....Dr. A. J. Hanson

TOWNSEND DINNER IS HAPPY EVENT

The family dinner staged Friday evening by the El Cerrito Townsend Club No. 1, was an unequalled success from every standpoint, and was well attended. The dinner was put on by a committee of women of the club headed by Mrs. John R. Morris.

Minor P. Long, a cousin of the late Senator from Louisiana, was the principal speaker of the evening, and gave a very interesting lecture on the current affairs of the Townsend movement.

Mrs. John Morris wishes to thank the business people of El Cerrito who donated to the dinner so generously, and every one else whose work and contributions made for the success of the evening.

GYM CLASS ENJOYS PICNIC AND GAMES

Several members of the Fairmont P. T. A. gym class spent Friday at the Standard Rod and Gun Club. They took along a picnic lunch and spent the day swimming and at various other amusements. Those enjoying the outing were Miss Esther Nagsoll, leader, Mrs. Anna Prior, Mrs. Lynn Nichols, Mrs. Lulu McIntyre, and Mrs. Penelope Hol-lar.

ITEMS OF LOCAL AND SOCIAL INTEREST

Mrs. Susan Smith of Adams, New York, and her son Delbert who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Inlay at 6111 Orchard street for the past week left for her Eastern home on Thursday evening. Mrs. Smith is a sister of Mrs. Inlay.

District Attorney and Mrs. Francis Healey and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jacoby were renewing El Cerrito acquaintances Friday evening.

Mrs. Robert L. Britton of Berkeley Park who was injured by a fall upon alighting from a street car in Oakland two weeks ago is so far recovered as to be up and around again.

Washington Wins In Meet With UCLA

SEATTLE, May 23.—UP—University of Washington's track team today edged out University of California at Los Angeles 71 to 60 in the last meet of the season here. The Huskies, taking revenge for a close defeat last year, led all the way.

U. S. CITIZENS WILL GET BIG SWEEPS PRIZE

DUBLIN, May 23.—UP—The major share of fortunes showered among some 4,000,000 persons who bought tickets in the Irish Hospitals' Sweepstake on next Wednesday's running of the derby at Epsom, Eng., went to the United States today.

Drawings from the great sweep drum at Mansion House showed that approximately 44 percent of the prizes went to the U. S. while Europe, chiefly Britain, got little more than 30 percent.

Apart from the United States and Europe tickets were distributed principally as follows:

Ireland, 59 tickets; Canada, 67; South Africa, 26; India, 17; British West Indies, 5; Burma, 3; British Guiana, Peru and China, two each; Argentina, Cuba, Brazil, Nigeria, Gold Coast, Australia, Panama, Mexico, Malaya and Venezuela, one each.

With all 984 tickets on 82 horses drawn, 432 tickets went to the United States and 318 to Europe. Ten residual prizes of $26,687.50 each and 1200 consolation prizes of $500 each will be drawn Monday.

Lord Powercourt, chairman of the Irish hospitals, opened today's draw with a brief speech after the big drums, which have been mixing the counterfoils for two days, were stilled.

It was announced that total receipts this year were $10,517,780. Of the total $6,266,875 or 60.74 percent was allotted to the prize fund and $4,050,905 or 39.26 percent was withheld for hospitals and expenses. The prize fund was divided into 12 units of $500,000 each.

Sermon Subject At Science Church

In all Christian Science Churches, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., a Lesson-Sermon will be read today, May 24, on the subject "Soul and Body."

The Golden Text will be: "Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul" (I Peter 2:11). Bible selections will include the following passages from Isaiah 45:5-10; 13: "I am the Lord, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me: . . . Woe unto him that saith unto his father, What begettest thou? or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth? Thus saith the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands command ye me. I have made the earth, and created man upon it: . . . I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways: Passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included, which read as follows: "Identity is the reflection of Spirit, the reflection in multifarious forms of the living Principle, Love. . . Man is idea, the image of Love, he is not physique" (pp. 477, 476).

Trainmen Delay Strike Pending U. S. Arbitration

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—UP—Trainmen on three California railroads, the Western Pacific, Sacramento Northern and Tidewater Southern did not strike or walk out on their jobs at the scheduled "zero hour" tonight, but kept their promise to remain at work long enough to permit arbitration.

The union heads insisted, however, that postponing the strike was not calling it off. If their demands concerning wage increases and working conditions are not met within a period of 30 days they will call the strike as planned originally, they said.

Those who have voted for strike action are engineers and conductors on the Western Pacific, motormen on the Sacramento-Northern and engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen on the Tidewater Southern.

An arbitration board, appointed by President Franklin D. Roosevelt, will begin peace negotiations here next Wednesday.

Man Wanted For Speeding, Dead

SAN JOSE, Cal., May 23.—UP—Police Judge Percy O'Connor today remitted a speeding fine against Charles Clanning, 66.

The fine had been hanging for sometime. Today officers attempting to serve Clanning with a bench warrant reported to Judge O'Connor that Clanning had been buried on Good Friday.

3097 STUDENTS AT U. C. ARE GIVEN DEGREES

BERKELEY, Cal., May 23.—UP—The University of California today awarded degrees to 3097 students, the largest graduating class in the history of the school.

Presentation of the degrees by President Gordon Sprout of the University climaxed the 10th annual commencement exercises that was marked by an international flavor—the broadcast by university alumni in Shanghai of their own exercises to the University campus.

More than 2200 members of the class received bachelor degrees. Others were awarded advanced degrees or certificates signifying they had completed special studies.

The presentation ceremonies were held in the memorial stadium for the first time in several years. The exercises were preceded by a student speaker, Arthur H. H. of San Francisco, president of the Associated Students, who on the speakers' platform with President Sprout.

The Shanghai-Berkeley broadcast arranged through a trans-Pacific short wave radio hookup, was a feature of the class of 1936, member of the class of 1936, son of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, former Chinese nationalist and founder of the Chinese republic.

Po, president of the Pilsen Convention of the Chinese Republic, was unable to give his address, entitled "The Influence of the University of California in China," because of a sudden death in his family.

His place was taken by May Yen Te-shen of Shanghai, President of the Chinese American trade council and a member of the Bank of China.

Their addresses were given during the commencement luncheon and featured the 20th reprint of the 1916 graduating class.

Julien Arnold, member of the 1902 class and now United States commercial attaché in Shanghai, introduced the Shanghai speaker.

ADVENTURE AND LOVE MIX IN G-MAN FILM

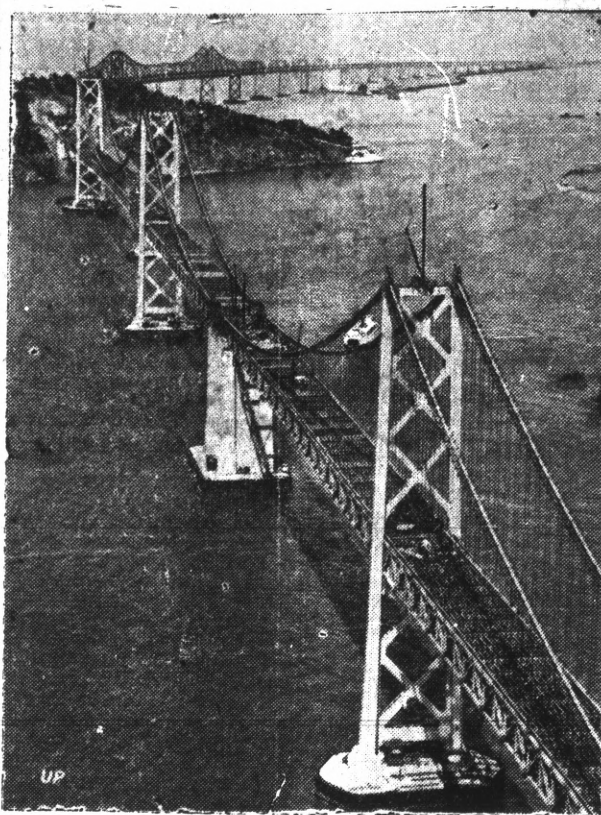

Richard Dix finds exciting adventure in an encounter with two kinds of love in his new starring vehicle that finds him a G-man arrayed against gangsters in "Special Investigator," at the Fox theatre today. "Brides Are Like That," a hilarious comedy starring Ross Alexander and Anita Louise is the second attraction on the incoming program.

Margaret Callahan and Sheila Terry show Richard Dix the extremes of selfish and unselfish women in a story of the fiercest vengeance of a gangland "moochie" whose brother was wiped out by the mobsters he shielded.

This story of a criminal lawyer whose brilliance stops the wheels of justice until his own brother's death shows him the evil of freeing guilty mobsters to prey on society again was pictured from Eric Stanley Gardner's "Fugitive Gold."

The companion picture is "Brides Are Like That" with Ross Alexander and Anita Louise as its comedy stars. It is based on the stage play "Applesauce" Joseph Cawthorn is a member of a selected supporting cast.

Epic of Steel

THE TWO-MILE San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge becomes a span of gentle, graceful beauty when viewed from the air. It is to be opened for automobile traffic early in November.

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY GO ROUND

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Exactly what took place in the Supreme Court during the 68 days of secret deliberation on the Guffey coal case of course no one but the nine Justices knows.

But attorneys who followed this and other New Deal cases closely say there is considerable external evidence of what happened behind the scenes before the three opinions in the Guffey case saw the light of day. This is what they think it was:

At the start, the Court apparently split 3-3-3. That is, three Justices wanted to hold the law valid, three to rule it out entirely, and three to invalidate the labor sections, but approve the price control provisions.

The last was the position taken by Chief Justice Hughes in his individual opinion.

But a 3-3-3 division would have stalemated the case and allowed the divergent lower court decisions to remain in force. It would have created widespread confusion and chaos. In Kentucky, for example, a federal court had thrown out the entire law. But in the District of Columbia, only the labor provisions had been ruled out.

Perhaps even more important, the prestige of the Court was at stake. A deadlock would have played directly into the hands of its critics, who claim that the Justices' economic and political views, not law, determine their rulings.

So, according to the analysts, there ensued some horse trading among the six Justices who favored some kind of decree against the Act.

The three Justices who wanted to toss out the entire law proposed tempering their stand, to the extent of not rendering final judgment on the price fixing sections, but merely holding them illegal in this specific instance because they were wrapped up with the unconstitutional labor provisions.

By this concession, two of the three Justices who favored the price-fixing features presumably were induced to go along with the three die-hards.

In confirmation of this theory the legalists cite three points:

First: Justice Sutherland's majority opinion shows signs of being a "patchwork" decision; that is, more than one pen had a hand in writing it.

Second: Sutherland, in one portion of his opinion, says specifically that he will pass on the constitutionality of the price-fixing sections later in his decision. Yet when he finally reaches this part of the law he withholds final judgment, saying, "The price-fixing provisions of the code are thus disposed of without coming to the question of their constitutionality."

Finally, the great length of time it took the Court to act upon the case—68 days—one of the longest periods of chamber debate in recent Court history.

SOMERSAULT

During the House debate on the Frazier-Lemke inflation bill, Tom Blanton, strident-voiced Congressman from the Texas Panhandle, was discussing the measure with a group of colleagues in the Democratic cloakroom.

"I signed the petition to force the bill out of committee," Blanton said. "But I am not going to vote for it."

Hollywood Film Shop

HOLLYWOOD, May 23.—UP—Pioneer Darryl Zanuck doesn't believe in too many stars. He has lodged a protest against the loose manner in which film players are given the title of "star" much in the same way prominent persons formerly were made "Kentucky Colonels."

Zanuck is frank in saying he doesn't believe in giving a player the synthetic title of "star" just to please that person's vanity or to effect a better contract.

"To my mind there are no more than a dozen legitimate stars in the whole motion picture business," he declared. "And I believe that an impartial survey of Hollywood would show that the burden of carrying pictures falls on the shoulders of some 40-odd players."

"Of this number no more than 12 belong in the star category. The others form an extremely competent and necessary group of leading men, leading women and character personalities whose box-office drawing power is reliant on their employment in combinations, or to the exceptional distinction of their current pictures," Zanuck said.

A star, according to the producer's definition, is someone who, through his or her individual magnetism, is able to achieve box-office success without the added weight of supporting players. The legitimate star, by virtue of his or her name and irrespective of the quality of the picture, can attract at least 2,000,000 patrons to American theaters, according to Zanuck.

"In this respect I want to add that Shirley Temple and the late Will Rogers, last year's top money makers, each could be expected to draw at least 3,000,000 persons to U. S. theaters," he said.

Zanuck explained that experience had taught him a star, if genuine, rises with the explosive force of a rocket, more the result of one sensational first appearance than through a long series of pictures.

"A quick glance at the careers of Miss Temple, Clark Gable, Katharine Hepburn, Frederic March, Marlene Dietrich, Fred Astaire and several others proves conclusively that they were made stars by mass audience approval."

Five Convicted By Florida Jury In Kidnap Plot

BARTOW, Fla., May 23.—UP—A jury of six men today convicted five former Tampa policemen on a charge of kidnaping Eugene F. Paul, not one of three labor leaders lashed by a mob last November.

One of the victims died from injuries received in the kidnaping. Those found guilty were C. A. Brown, C. W. Carlisle, John P. Bridges, Sam E. Crosby and P. W. Switzer.

Judge Robert T. Dewell, withheld passing sentence, anticipating a defense motion for a new trial. Maximum sentence on the kidnaping charge is 10 years.

Judge Dewell a week ago directed a verdict of acquittal in the case of R. G. Fitzworth, former police chief, charged with being an accessory after the fact. He also exonerated Robert Chapell, a former policeman.

Judgment Given On Promissory Note

MARTINEZ, May 23.—Taking the case under submission recently, Superior Judge Thomas D. Johnston today gave judgment for $1,636.16 in favor of the plaintiff in an action filed by S. O. Holmes against G. H. Anderson, Hazel Jones and J. Frances Downer.

The plaintiff had charged the defendants owed the amount on a promissory note made at Richmond, June 12, 1929.

He reckoned that in the English language the letter "e" occurred most frequently. Using "e" to substitute for the character that appeared most often in the message, he discovered that the letters R and S were always combined and were used the greatest number of times. He therefore threw R and S together to represent the letter "e."

He stared at the jumble of characters. The first four letters were C X R S. Since R S stood for "e" it was reasonable to assume that C stood for "t" and X for "n." That made the word the and also identified two more characters.

That led to the deciphering of the next word whose cipher characters were C T R S, Y & T R S. By filling in with the letters he already had, he guessed it to be treasure.

AFTER that it was easy. With seven characters identified the translation progressed rapidly. In a short time after astute guessing work he had transcribed the entire message. It read:

"40196020. The treasure is buried ten paces from stone cairn now between two red oaks under north side wall Wm Kidd."

The meaning of the numbers at the beginning now dawned upon him. They gave the longitude and latitude of the island. The north side wall referred to was the spot on Skeleton Island where Captain Santee and Drumm had taken Bitherbee and Audrey on that day when they had gone cruising.

Kirby bit the end of his pencil and wondered how Captain Santee had ever been astute enough to decipher the cryptogram. Somehow he couldn't quite see the old seadog doing it. Someone sharper than Santee must have done it.

In all probability, Santee had found the map and had had some other person translate the cipher.

NEW YORK INSIDE OUT

By DON O'MALLEY

NEW YORK, May 23.—Constant Peril to Women in New York: Sidewalk subway grating, which catch and imprison high heels. In front of Grand Central, the other afternoon, one pretty miss suddenly found herself walking in stockings, her shoe left sticking upright behind. It took three gallant young men to extricate the footgear—and they saved the heel, too—G. S. Kaufman, the playwright, appeared with Hugh O'Connell at a Sunday benefit, a couple of weeks ago. In a skit he once wrote with Marc Connelly. The audience gave him a pretty good hand after the number, but in a back row a patron leaned over to his neighbor and confided warmly: "That guy's all right. O'Connell ought to keep him in the act." Internal revenue men descended upon the offices of a today to interview one "Jack Randolph." Randolph, whose baritone voice is heard on recorded programs, had failed, it seems, to file an income tax return. After two days the revenue agent discovered that "Randolph" is really Jerry Cooper, who uses the assumed name exclusively for transcription—and he had paid the tax anyway.

DESERTED—Frank Moulan, director and star in the current Gilbert and Sullivan company at the Majestic, was telling me backstage how difficult it is to sing the Chancellor's "Nightmare Song" in "Iolanthe." The famous pattern runs to more than 700 words, and it is quite a linguistic feat to go through it without a slip.

Moulan once appeared in an open air performance with De Wolf Hopper as the Chancellor. Hopper used to keep his eyes shut while singing the song, the better to concentrate on the words. He had embarked on the first verse when rain began to fall. The audience started leaving, first in twos, then in fours and finally in a stampede.

Hopper went right ahead singing, his eyes shut. When he got through he heard no applause. Amazed, he opened his eyes.

Not a soul was there.

MASKED—Sheila Barrett has had to fight for her professional status out in Hollywood. If I read aright the gossip she has just sent me from the coast, Sheila is the mimic and comedienne whose stock in trade for many seasons, around all the Manhattan nighties, is her impersonations of screen and stage luminaries.

In conversation with one of screenland's doting Daniels, one evening, Miss Barrett was informed that the studios were looking for new faces, not imitations of old ones. "I don't see," went on her well-meant pal, "how you expect to get recognition just by impersonating people."

"I'm afraid I won't any other way," Sheila replied. "Yesterday I went to a party at Donald Ogden Stewart's house and I didn't imitate Garbo, Dietrich, Hepburn or a speakeasy girl—and nobody knew who I was."

HELP—The Bureau of New Plays, Inc., with Theresa Helburn as director, offers prizes and awards for college dramatists. Six prizes of $500 each will be given for the best play on human relations, on a social theme, as well as the best melodrama, farce, satire and character study. Fellowships of $2,500 and scholarships of $1,250 will also be awarded to those needing financial help.

All scripts must be recommended by the heads of colleges dramatic or English departments. You can get further details by writing to 1270 Sixth avenue, New York.

CRIMSON WARNING

CHAPTER XXXII
SPREADING the parchment out, Kirby took a piece of blank paper and copied the letters and signs of the cryptogram with a pencil. He folded the copy and placed it in his pocket. Then he studied the original.

The numbers 40196020 stumped him completely. He went on to the letters.

He reckoned that in the English language the letter "e" occurred most frequently. Using "e" to substitute for the character that appeared most often in the message, he discovered that the letters R and S were always combined and were used the greatest number of times. He therefore threw R and S together to represent the letter "e."

He stared at the jumble of characters. The first four letters were C X R S. Since R S stood for "e" it was reasonable to assume that C stood for "t" and X for "n." That made the word the and also identified two more characters.

That led to the deciphering of the next word whose cipher characters were C T R S, Y & T R S. By filling in with the letters he already had, he guessed it to be treasure.

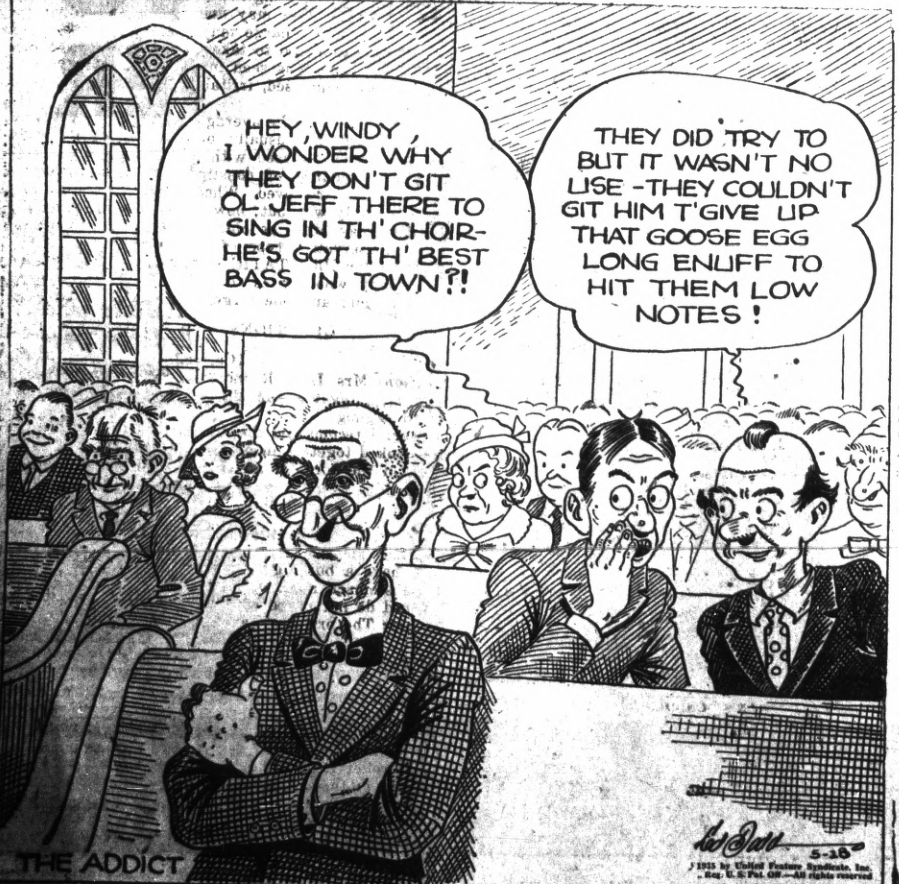

AFTER that it was easy. With seven characters identified the translation progressed rapidly. In a short time after astute guessing work he had transcribed the entire message. It read:

"40196020. The treasure is buried ten paces from stone cairn now between two red oaks under north side wall Wm Kidd."

The meaning of the numbers at the beginning now dawned upon him. They gave the longitude and latitude of the island. The north side wall referred to was the spot on Skeleton Island where Captain Santee and Drumm had taken Bitherbee and Audrey on that day when they had gone cruising.

Kirby bit the end of his pencil and wondered how Captain Santee had ever been astute enough to decipher the cryptogram. Somehow he couldn't quite see the old seadog doing it. Someone sharper than Santee must have done it.

In all probability, Santee had found the map and had had some other person translate the cipher.

OLD PEOPLE find way to keep breath wholesome

Halitosis (bad breath) quickly yields to Listerine, safe antiseptic and deodorant

Either because of stomach disturbance, food fermentation, or the wearing of false teeth, old people frequently have halitosis (bad breath). No wonder others consider them a nuisance.

But now Listerine has found that the regular use of Listerine will often overcome offensive mouth odors due to the fermentation of tiny bits of food on mouth, teeth, or dental plate surfaces.

This safe antiseptic and quick deodorant works quickly. It cleanses mouth, teeth, and gum surfaces. Halts fermentation and putrefaction, a major cause of odors, and then counteracts the odors themselves.

Try using Listerine every two or three days. You will find how much more wholesome it leaves your mouth. How it sweetens your breath. Lambert Pharmaceutical Co., St. Louis, Mo.

DEBT RELIEF FOR FARMERS IS APPROVED

FRESNO, May 23—UP—The California state farm debt readjustment commission today approved a series of resolutions designed to give relief to debtors.

Meeting in the first statewide convention, the delegates representing all California counties, approved the following resolutions advocating:

Extension of mortgage moratoriums to home owners.

Reduction of mortgage interest rates.

Increased liberalization of the federal land bank policy on commissioners' loans.

Extension of the so-called "ten year" plan providing for payment of delinquent taxes.

Elimination of creditors' requests that debtors waive the legal provisions requiring the exhaustion of securities before suit may be begun on the note itself.

Commission members also protested against federal land bank appraisals too low to aid the commission in debt readjustment.

"favorite son" candidate, had endorsement of the State Republican party today as a nominee for President.

The State convention endorsed Knox unanimously, instructed its eight delegates-at-large to the National nominating convention in Cleveland to vote for him.

Supporters of Sen. William E. Borah managed a mild protest, but received no official attention.

The convention adopted a declaration of principles listing 20 subjects, including opposition to the New Deal's "childish rattle and rattle" agricultural program.

would have necessitated a long session. Despite the governor's desire for a brief session and his belief that all the business on his program could be accomplished in one day, observers predicted the lawmakers would be here at least three days since even the most insignificant bill frequently produces long arguments when the California legislators get under way.

TECHNICAL MEASURES

Among the more important technical measures to be considered was the enabling act to permit return of unemployment insurance contributions to employers and employees in event the unemployment reserves act is declared unconstitutional. Others would extend the plan of paying delinquent taxes in ten-year installments provided current taxes are met regularly.

There probably will be technical measures regarding aid to orphans and the blind, which would permit California to participate fully in the federal social security program.

cooking, and she made many worthwhile suggestions for adding zest and variety to the daily menu, a few of which are printed here.

"For that special luncheon, when the salad should be truly aristocratic, mix a generous amount of mayonnaise into the mayonnaise. It's positively delicious that way! And watch your guests' faces—they will be properly impressed."

"A good omelet is always welcome, but did you ever try folding one over a generous portion of fresh, crisp watercress. The nippy flavor is a delightful addition, and the cool green color of the omelet is at its best when contrasted with a rich, yellow omelet."

"Gay peasant cloths, of bright linen, make a party of the most ordinary breakfast, and help to wake even confirmed sleepyheads. And on Sunday morning, try serving breakfast on the lawn or in the garden, underneath a tree. It's so easy to set up a card table, or to move the breakfast table out of doors, and you'll love the sparkle and brightness of the sunlit morning."

Miss Miller has dozens of ideas for bringing some of the gaiety of the Spring season to the dining table—delightful additions to the daily menu, most of them quite inexpensive, yet new and attractive. Economy will be stressed in these classes held by Miss Miller, for she feels that the woman who can excel in the art of cookery, without fuss or extravagance, is the person who merits the highest of praise.

Miss Miller will conduct the Record-Herald cooking school in Richmond Clubhouse from 2 to 4 P. M. on May 27, 28 and 29.

Famed Scientist Named Director Of Institution

LA JOLLA, Cal., May 23.—UP.—Dr. Harald Ulrik Sverdrup, noted Norwegian oceanographer and meteorologist, has been named director of the Scripps Institution of Oceanography at the University of California to succeed Dr. T. Wayland Vaughan, who resigned after a notable career. It was announced officially today.

Dr. Sverdrup has been a research associate of the Carnegie Institution in Washington since 1928. He was a member of the Norwegian North pole expedition on the steamer "Maud" and spent a number of years in the Arctic.

Dr. Vaughan, who will be 65-year-old in September, was one of the first scientists to recognize the importance of studying the bottom of the ocean as well as the surface. He developed several instruments used in mapping the contour of the ocean bed.

he now has the corrupting sum of $500 to show for his labors which should make him, according to Congressional standards, a malefactor of great wealth. Personally I would take his word as truth in preference to that of his persecutors. Incidentally I cannot see that it is any business of the committee how much money was gathered or how it was spent. More to the point would be how the committee is spending the huge sum of money appropriated by Congress for the so-called inquiry.

As I have before said in this column, what we want is enlightenment upon whether the Townsend plan is feasible, and not abuse of its leader. Is Congress afraid to delve into that vital part of the subject and disclose the facts? Why all these attempts at character assassination and daily exhibitions of mud-slinging, if not an effort to belaud the issue?

Townsend did exactly the right and proper thing when he walked out on the committee and stated he would not appear again unless brought back under arrest. He thus rectified the original mistake when he complied with the summons to appear before the committee. He should have then told it individually and collectively to go to hell, and it is dollars to doughnuts that these men, acting without constitutional authority, would not have had the temerity to order his arrest. The kickback and repercussions from such action they are not inviting, particularly in a campaign year. Even now they have shown their lack of good faith by sidestepping the direct issue, backing water and running for cover. Despite announcements that Dr. Townsend would be brought before the House for contempt of the committee—a fitting term as people generally have nothing but contempt for it—there is a significant lack of action.

One thing is apparent — if Dr. Townsend was making a bluff, it was a good one and the committee did not dare call it. After all is said and done he holds the best hand, backed by the confidence of people generally while the committee is pursuing a course that lays it wide open to well-founded charges of bad faith and persecution.

All I hope is that Dr. Townsend does not weaken. Having expected in the eye of the lion and found that the beast after all was nothing but a coward, he has nothing to fear from standing pat.

Meanwhile, the prosecutor's office was swamped with calls from persons who claimed to be victims of the hooded band.

"These persons who are calling are fearful of their own or their families' lives," McCrea said. "So are those we have arrested. They say that they will endanger themselves if they reveal the secrets of the strange group."

McCrea said his investigators had obtained but a few names of intended victims. This, he explained, was because they feared they had been watched. His investigators have made secret appointments with others, he said.

"Those in custody claim their lives are not worth a nickel," he said, and have requested to remain in jail for safety."

Two in automobiles and rushed to the castle, which they surrounded. Landarmes, informed of the plot to seize arms at Wachsberg, arrived almost simultaneously with the attackers and fought a pitched battle for 15 minutes.

RAID IS HALTED

The attackers broke into the castle but were driven out by the police. Starnberg was at his nearby estate. He piloted his own plane to Vienna as soon as news of the raid reached the capital.

Heimwehr officials at Linz said that arms never had been stored at Wachsberg. Heimwehr headquarters in Vienna admitted they had been arms at the castle but said they had been removed to Vienna several weeks ago.

How the government learned of plans for the raid in time to send gendarmes to frustrate it has not been divulged.
